

Family legal services

Whether you are embarking on or ending a relationship, life-changing decisions for you or your family need to be made in a rational manner.

When starting new chapters in your personal life, we provide impartial legal advice on how to prepare for your future with your long-term interests in mind.

Whatever your situation, having to deal with difficult emotions, complex financial issues and the protection of your assets requires an experienced legal team on your side.

Our strength lies in our sensitivity. We provide a comprehensive family law service and take time to understand our clients' needs. As members of Resolution, a national organisation of family lawyers committed to non-confrontational divorce, separation and other family problems, we take a constructive approach to resolving family matters and give measured, balanced legal support.

At the outset of a relationship, we draft and advise on pre-nuptial, pre-civil partnership or cohabitation agreements to set out your agreed responsibilities and obligations towards each other.

If your relationship breaks down, we steer you through the maze of complex legal and financial issues including maintenance, division of capital, pensions and business interests. This may include assets held abroad or in trust.

Where children are involved, we help manage decisions about their care and financial arrangements.

Sue Andrews heads the team and is praised for her reassuring bedside manner.

Their approach is direct, practical and strategic whilst also being sensitive to clients' needs and concerns.

Chambers UK, A Client's Guide to the Legal Profession

Sue Andrews' family law expertise leaves clients 'totally reassured by her depth of experience and her knowledge of a very complicated area of the law.'

Recommended for 'patient persistence and strength of resolve' in complex family cases.
