

Litigation and dispute resolution services for individuals

No one said life was fair. Most of the time we accept that it's just the way things are and we adopt a "live and let live" approach.

Occasionally, though, you may find your life, your health, your wealth or your property under threat or damaged to such an extent that you cannot ignore the situation.

In these circumstances, you need to seek the advice of experts in litigation and mediation.

The dispute resolution team at B P Collins has a reputation for being friendly and accessible to clients and has a solid track record of winning cases across the range of courts, representing individuals through contract disputes, personal injury claims, insolvency, fraud, property disputes, contentious probate and inheritance issues, motoring offences and debt collection.

We also handle shareholder and partnership disputes and are known for the quality of our advice in these fields.

We will advise on the best approach, whether it be litigation or mediation and, with two qualified mediators in the team, we will ensure that every avenue for a fair settlement is explored before launching any legal claim.

Where a negotiated outcome is not possible, we will litigate robustly on your behalf and seek to recover a high percentage of your legal costs from opponents.

Clients applaud the team's commitment, sound judgement and reasonable fees.

'Very impressive outfit'... clients expressed satisfaction with the team as a whole, praising the 'commitment and valuable personal attention' on offer.
