

Commercial Contracts Overflow Review Service from B P Collins LLP

The challenge

Do you have a reasonably high volume of commercial contracts and supplier terms and conditions to review?

Do you find it a challenge to conduct the reviews quickly and efficiently when volume exceeds capacity or when the demands of your business require you to prioritise elsewhere?

Are there times when a second opinion or a sanity check would be appreciated?

Do you worry that it would take time (you don't have) to brief an external law firm on your commercial policy and preferred approach, and then to negotiate fees?

The solution

- The Commercial Contracts Overflow Review Service can be set up during a time when there is less pressure on you.
- We will invest our time, without charge, in understanding your business and the commercial approach you take to reviewing and negotiating commercial contracts, from a high-level key issues identification process to a full contract review or somewhere in-between.
- We will provide you with one or two points of contact and ensure those contacts have the level of experience required to support you
- We will agree with you an acceptable method of charging and the turnaround times required. This can be a fixed or capped fee per contract, a set hourly rate or a retainer arrangement – it will be bespoke to you and designed to fit your requirements at sensible regional law firm prices.
- From then on you know you have access to a qualified overflow resource to process contracts in the way you would do it if you had the time - knowing how much it will cost.
